

James Cobo

Cobo Brothers Co. (Durham, NC)

James Cobo is the co-founder of CoboBrothers Dance Co. (CBDC) and has been teaching Salsa On2 since late 2000.

As a member of CoboBrothers Dance Co., James has taught workshops and performed at salsa festivals and congresses throughout the United States, Europe, Asia, and Oceania since 2001. His passion for teaching and commitment to technical excellence have earned him recognition as an instructor, performer, coach, and choreographer.

As a trainer and coach, James has played a significant role in developing many of North Carolina's most talented and successful salsa dancers, helping them build strong technical foundations and achieve success both in showcase and competition.

Committed to continual growth as a dancer and educator, James trained with Iroko, under the direction of Ernesto Bulnes and Denisse Cambria, from early 2018 through the end of 2019.

In addition to his work in the salsa community, James served as the co-choreographer for the 2022 Raleigh Little Theatre production of In the Heights.

Website

Instagram
